What You May Not Know...

Income Taxes

Though in the minority, Americans used to voluntarily pay their income taxes - thanks to Walt Disney and Daffy Duck. Before the Victory Tax Act was passed in 1946, Daffy Duck was portrayed as paying his income taxes to the government.

April Fool's Day

The custom of shouting "April Fool!" was brought to the United States by English settlers in the early 1600's. One theory to it's origin goes back to Noah, who is said to have mistakenly sent the dove out to find dry land after the flood began to recede on April 1st.

Over the years there have been some very elaborate hoaxes even by large TV corporations. The BBC managed to convince its audience in 1957 that Swiss farmers were enjoying a bumper spaghetti crop. They showed footage of spaghetti growing on trees and were inundated with calls from the general public asking for advice on growing spaghetti. The BBC even had the audacity to suggest placing a sprig of spaghetti in a tin of tomato sauce to assist its growth.

April Fool's Day is illegal in the Peoples Republic of China, Venezuela, Trinidad and Tobago, Alaska, Cuba and Bolivia.

Can You Help?

There are always plenty of volunteer opportunities at the Shell Knob Eagles so feel free to use your strengths to serve our Aerie in whatever capacity you feel you can.

For more information contact your Trustee or President.

A Shout Out to all FOE 4155 members from brother Eagle Fred McMillen. He says hi to everyone and will be visiting Shell Knob this summer. Fred recently moved to Torrence, CA. and misses the ole' gang on skid row.

President's Note March 2007

Spring is finally here, and those who have been feeling a little under the weather will hopefully be better soon. Shell knob Aerie 4155 had a good showing at the last dist. #6 Meeting; we could almost see the top of that trophy. Maybe next time, thanks to all who came out. Aerie 4155/Auxiliary St. Patrick's Day celebration was overflowing with smiling faces and full tummies. Oh! What a day. Thanks to all those who contributed their food, money and time. A special thanks to Dooley and Pat for an outstanding meal.

Reminder: nominations for 2007-2008 Aerie officers will be held at the April 18th meeting. Come out and support your Aerie.

Forward Together
Worthy President
Curry Bates

Madam president says hello from (cal-ee-forn-ya). Don't forget Ladies Auxiliary bake sale Saturday, April 7th. Be sure to bring your baked goods to the Aerie the day before, on the 6th. Proceeds go to Make A Wish Foundation of Missouri.

Ladies' officers nominations will be on April 16th. Let' give a big thanks to our bartenders, and welcome our newest bartender, Sue Swihart. "The hardest working people in Shell Knob" -- a hug or a buck couldn't hurt!

Until next month.

History of Table Shuffleboard

Part I

Shuffleboard's name, and the basic idea for the sport, came from an English game that was popular in the 16th century. Shakespeare referred to it as "shove-groat" and "shovel-board." The game was probably created as an indoor version of lawn bowls. The English aristocracy played on specially made tables up to 30 feet long. The object was to slide a metal weight down the table, attempting to get it as close to the other end as possible. Lower classes played in taverns, using coins, such as groats or shillings. In 1522, Henry VIII issued an edict that "none of the society shall play at the game called Shoffe boorde or Slypgrote." However, that didn't apply to the aristocracy. Henry himself continued to play. The upper classes lost interest during the 18th century, but the tavern version survived as "slide-thrift," "push-penny," and "shove ha'penny," created about 1840 and still popular in many areas of Great Britain.
